CAMP THREE 16 - 27 February 2026

Age: 6-17 years (Boarding available for ages 8 and above)

A young girl with brown hair tied back, wearing a white helmet, glasses, a white t-shirt, white pants, and purple sneakers, is climbing a grey rock wall. She is smiling and looking down at her hands as she grips a red handhold. A black safety harness is worn around her waist, attached to a rope. The wall has several other colorful handholds (red, yellow, green) and small black dots representing screws or bolts. The overall scene is set against a solid light blue background.

“My time at Raffles American School Camp was unforgettable! I came to improve my English, but I left with so much more, new friends from around the world, amazing teachers who really cared, and the confidence to speak and share my ideas in English every day. The classes were fun and interactive, and the activities like sports, music, and trips to LEGOLAND made every day exciting.

After experiencing what it's like to learn here, I didn't want it to end. That's why I decided to enroll in the full-time program at Raffles American School. It's not just a camp, it's a place where you can grow, dream big, and succeed.”

– Former Camp Student, now Full-time Raffles American School Student, Jayden, Grade 9

WELCOME TO RafflesAmerican*School

Nestled amid the verdant undulating hills in the burgeoning city of Iskandar, Malaysia, the brand new Raffles American School campus welcomes students from pre-kindergarten through 12th grade. Spanning an expansive 46 acres, our institution provides a holistic learning environment seamlessly integrated into its picturesque surroundings. Capitalizing on the natural slope of the site, the campus is ingeniously structured into three distinct “terraces,” with each terrace dedicated to a cluster of grade levels. Our cutting-edge facilities include student-centered classrooms, laboratories, art studios, a state-of-the-art performing arts center, an expansive library, and dedicated student housing.

In a nod to global cultural experiences, Raffles American School proudly features a custom-designed planetarium on campus. While others may travel to iconic destinations like New York City to marvel at the planetarium in the National History Museum, our students have this incredible resource at their fingertips. At Raffles American School, we believe in providing an environment where your child can Think, Create, and ultimately Succeed, empowered by our commitment to state-of-the-art facilities and innovative learning spaces.
